2024 New Year's Culture Night presents:

World-renowned Koto artist Fuyuki Enokido (榎戸 二幸)

Wednesday January 17,

6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. (Doors Open 5:30 p.m.)

Enokido is a graduate of the Tokyo National University of Fine Arts and Music and recipient of the Acanthus Music Award given to the top-performing students at graduation. She has also completed the graduate school music course at the university.

She began to study the KOTO from the age of 3 under her late great aunt Miko Kobashi (former professor at Tokyo National University of Fine Arts and Music, former counselor of Japan Sankyoku Association, Honorary Director of Koto Miyagi Association, and Director of Michiyo Miyagi Memorial Hall).

She performed solo on her first stage at the National Theater in Nagatacho.

Since her junior high school days, she has performed in more than 36 countries overseas, including New Zealand, Germany, Turkey, and France.

In 2012 she was appointed by the Commissioner of the Agency for Cultural Exchange Ambassador and helped in London with the bid for the 2020 Tokyo Olympics and Paralympics. In 2016, she performed for the G7 leaders at the Ise-Shima Summit hosted by the Prime Minister. She also performed on the TOKYO 2020 traditional performing arts stage at the Rio de Janeiro Para Olympics, and in 2023 performed for the G7 leaders at the Hiroshima Summit social event hosted by the Prime Minister. It was the first overseas performance.

She currently serves as Corporate Auditor of Cultural Exchange Agency for Cultural Affairs, Toshima International Culture Art Special Ambassador's Advisor, Green Sports Alliance Japan Advisor, and President of Sachi no Kai.Co.
